Re: Mitchell & McClendon General Merchants Building, Enid, Tallahatchie County

Dear Mr. Tippitt:

We are pleased to inform you that the Mitchell & McClendon General Merchants Building was entered in to the National Register of Historic Places on September 23, 2025. The National Register is the country's official list of buildings, sites, districts, and structures that merit preservation because of their significance in American history.

We would like to thank you for your participation in promoting historic preservation in Mississippi, and offer our congratulations to you on receiving this honor. If the Department of Archives and History can ever be of service to you, please do not hesitate to call us at (601) 576-6578.

Sincerely,

Katie Blount
State Historic Preservation Officer
